Two Plus Two Equals Five

Star One

You are deranged, you don't exist reality's all in your mind give it up, you'll never resist you'll confess, then you dieWe are the law, we control your pain telling you how to behave we are the voice inside your brain you're nothing but a lifeless slave black is white and white is black the fact's a lie and the lie's a fact you are the dead and the dead are alive two plus two equals fiveYou are alone, you cannot hide we see every move that you make you are the last, your dreams have died even your past is a fakeWe are the cure, we'll make you sane and purge every sin from your life break you down, erase your name not even your shadow survivesPeace means war, rich means poor, and perfect flawed less means more, five means four and hate adore love means law, true means false and break restore dusk means dawn, here means gone, unbend deformDie means born, admire means scorn, to know ignore won means lost, calm means storm, forget recall stand means fall, run means crawl, attack withdraw weak means strong, right means wrong, diverge conform
