

Until I Die

September

Until the day I die
Until the day I die

So every single day begins and ends the same
I see them pushing to get on board a crowded train
Out of the pouring rain, to face another pain
Why you so afraid of the other side?

It's just a big parade, it's people on display
If one should stumble imagine what the rest would say
They're making harmless sounds, their heads go round and round
Why do you stay away from the other side?

Now you have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
You have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
Until the day I die

You'll see me in the clouds laughing a bit too loud
You'll see me crying 'cause I'm too crazy to be proud
Today I'll celebrate, tomorrow is too late
I'll be out there pushing the borderline

Postponing is a crime, who knows if I have time
When this is over, I hope I never walked the line
So call me immature, at least I know for sure
I'll be crossing over the borderline

Now you have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
You have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
Until the day I die, I do believe

I hear everybody say that today is the day
And sooner or later my luck is gonna change
Well, that day is never near if you're living by your fear
Stand up and shout you're alive

Until the day I die
Now you have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
You have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die

Now you have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die
You have to believe in me
I'll live until the day I die

---

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com

written by Bhagavan, Anoo Finn Ananda / Von Der Burg, Niclas Torsten / Von Der Burg, Jonas
Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing, Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>