

Valkyries

Blind Guardian

To the gods of the north, I pray
And raise my cup for the fallen ones
Then I cry
In Valhalla they'll sing
Rain
Red blood keeps pouring down
Come Valkyries, join me on that final ride
Here I lie bleeding
Odin, I await thee
The battle rages on
New lines they're weaving
The future, the past and the present
They're one
Reveal their mask
Show me a way to survive
This bitter war
Soon it will be over
He will be the one
We'll weave in
And terror will now rule these lands
When the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us home
When the battle is lost
And the slain ones are chosen
Valkyries will guide us home
Destiny
A spinning wheel
The path of glory
Round and round
Come join us
On your final ride to Asgard
Let's move on fast
Allfather waits
So let's heed the final call
For now
We leave this world behind
It's over
All glory to the brave
Still blood will rain
Through storm and fire
Let war winds reign
It's the feast for the crows
Follow the light the light
Just follow the light the light
Or fade away
Soon it will be over
He will be the one

Valkyries will guide us home
Valkyries will guide us home We'll keep on weaving
We're crushing through lines
With our battering swords
We're marching on Assign the brave
To survive
This bitter war Soon it will be over
He will be the one
We'll weave in And terror will now rule these lands When the battle is lost
We'll heed the final call
A call to arms
The Valkyries will guide us home The finally I hear them say
Carry on
For Valhalla awaits you
