The Burn

Starship

Bad is better than the burn
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burnI'll take the blame, it's my mistake
One heart goes free, one heart just aches
It's an easy kill within my range
I made the break, honey, you kept the painAnd yesterday means nothin' to me now, doesn't matter
I'll keep it hid, you'll live somehowBad is better than the burn
Truth is better than a lie
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burnI fished love's kiss from the wishing well
Wound up in heaven, stayed around for hell
It's a common crime to live this lie
I see no point after love has diedI'll be the one who said good-bye, oh yeah
And I'll take the heat for the tears you cryBad is better than the burn
Truth is better than a lie
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burn, oh yeahBad is better than the burn
Or the hurt that's hidden in the heart
They say you pay with what you earn
Bad is better than the burnCold is the shoulder that turns away
Curses the man on Judgment Day
Damned by the brand done too soon
Crawled out of this house and howled at the moonAnd yesterday means nothing to me now
I'll keep it hid, you'll live somehowBad is better than the burn
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burn
Bad is better than the burnTruth is better than a lie
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burn
(Bad is better than the burn)Bad is better than the burn
Truth is better than a lie
Some people never learn
Bad is better than the burn
Bad is better than the burn
