

Second Generation Woman

Family

Smokes like a man getting higher than I can

She knows how

Ahead of her time but she don't give a damn

Why should she

She looks good to handle from a personal angle

Second generation woman

Last thing you gotta do is force her into lovin' you

No need to

Knows then her time is right

Comes to you without a fight

She wants to

She looks good to handle from a personal angle
Second generation woman
She's a woman that won't let you down

Just as long as she's around

You don't have to worry

She feeds you, loves you, lets you know she digs you

She's in a hurry

She looks good to handle from a personal angle

Second generation woman
