Paint You

Seals & Crofts

Sit down on the marble floor
Strike that pose for me once moreLet the time stand still
While I catch my breath
You reveal your beauty
I will do the restI wanna paint you in the north light
We can do this together
I wanna paint you in the north light
Keep this moment foreverStep out on the balcony
Wear the golden earrings
Make them dance for meLet the time stand still
You just be yourself
Now, release your emotion
I will do the restI wanna paint you in the north light
We can do this together
I wanna paint you in the north light
Keep this moment foreverI wanna hold you
Look into your eyes
You excite me alwaysI wanna love you in the north light
Keep you with me alwaysReach out
Let me see you stare
Let your hair surrender
To your shoulders bareI wanna paint you in the north light
We can do this together
I wanna paint you in the north light
Keep this moment foreverI wanna hold you
Look into your eyes
You excite me alwaysI wanna love you in the north light
Keep you with me always
