

Love/Hate Heartbreak (Live from Philly 2010)

Halestorm

Why did I waste my time?
Two steps, I don't rewind
Feeling I can't define
I give back to you Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away I see my demise
From behind your eyes
I can't pass you by
I put back to you Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away Between love, between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak This could be suicide
A kiss with these red knives
Why am I driving blind?
I give back to you Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away Try on one for size
I thought boys don't cry
You're my perfect lie
I give back to you Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away Between love, between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
