

Let Me Go

Keybone

In the air! Can you turn it up a notch? Can you?
It's all about love
It's all about love If you love me
Love me like you say you do
You got to let me know
Let it show oh!
If you love me
Love me like you say you do
You got to let me go
Let me grow oh!

If what you feel is love, you must know I feel it too
As a beholder, I can't believe my eyes it's beautiful
As we are getting older everyday, things can get critical
Way beyond the physical, that is when I need you to Sleep and keep a high hope, I will be a rap pope
Don't you worry I'm dope, your love alone will see me through
Big things you will see me do, big dreams are coming true
Home and abroad,

Key is who the listeners are warming to and humming to
You shouldn't stress, we are blessed, we more than conquerors
Meaning they can't conquer us, we are stronger now
Our footprints will last longer now
This is more than just we came, fame or game
This is word, this is life, this is the why we strife
This means more than the world, more than my mics are five
On the other hand, we gotta understand how to let go from the get-go
Not cos I'm saying it, because love said so
If you love me,
Love me like you say you do
You got to let me know,
Let it show oh!
If you love me,
Love me like you say you do
You gotta let me go,
Let me grow oh! Love is fear, love is always in the air
When I'm not, I will be there, I will care, I will share
Try my best to prepare, two is better than one
Softer than leather for once, can't wait for what we will become Together we come, through the weather we stormed

Snakes and fakes we stomped, ran till heartbeat pumped
Been through the valley, the alley, the world is our rally
One day in Nollywood, the next day could be Cali
I dream on, cos your love fuels my desires
It quells my fire, helps to get me higher
When herbs couldn't get me higher
In webs and I was tired, I almost retired
In my deep sleep I heard the beep beep, we keep what we reap
I hope your love is true, not the same as love in shoes
Why choose or loose all to vanity?
Why the hell would we let hate stall humanity? It's all insanity! If you love me,
Love me like you say you do
You got to let me know,
Let it show oh!
If you love me,
Love me like you say you do
You gotta let me go,
Let me grow oh! Love is a beautiful thing, love is everything
Matter of fact, lets love is everything
If you ain't got love, you ain't got have it now
Cos If you ain't got love, it's about it now
Love is everything, matter of fact, love is a beautiful thing
You gotta know this for yourself Homie
You gotta know this for yourself Sister
You gotta know this for yourself
Cos If you love me,
Love me like you say you do,
I 'll know, you will know oh
