Shit List

The Boxmasters

I'm in our old room, baby
It hasn't changed at all
It's still our cocoon, baby
That's what made me callI heard you're having love trouble
I heard your daddy died
I'm sorry you got a double dose
Of sorrow by your sideSo I can take the fast train
I can ease your troubled soul
I know you're in a world of pain
And you're left out in the coldJust know that you are sorely missed
I want to lend a hand
Even though I'm on your shit list
I'll always be your manI'm looking at my ring, baby
The one you gave to me
I felt just like your king, baby
But that's old used to beBack before our love trouble
Before I killed your pride
I got a double dose of your girlfriend
Burning me insidePlease let me take that fast train
And make up our lost time
I know it may sound insane
But I'm in my right mindJust remember when we last kissed
Let's go back there again
And wipe me off your shit list
And let me be your manSo I can take the fast train
I can ease your troubled soul
I know you're in a world of pain
And you're left out in the coldJust know that you are sorely missed
I want to lend a hand
Even though I'm on your shit list
I'll always be your manPlease wipe me off your shit list
And let me be your man
