

Invisible

Adhitia Sofyan

Traffic jam city streets forget about the rest
Your sanity will be put to the test
Client call repeatedly they want another change
Some idiots just cant make up their minds
Well I would if you want to go
Just sail away from this madness
Where we will remain invisible
I wonder if what future holds will never gonna come
Were sitting here waiting like a fool
Photographs I stumbled on they scattered on the floor
Theyre memories that haunt you from its grave
Well I would if you want to go
Just fly away from this madness
Where we will remain invisible
Global warmings the thing now everybodys in
If youre not green you better not be seen
Armageddon, crystal ball, Jesus reappears
Theyre prophecies of world comes to an end
Well I would if you want to go
Just disappear from this madness
Yeah I would if you want to go
Where we will remain invisible
