

Sugarland

Papa Mali

Yeah, yeah, yes
Standing on the side of the road
Trying to find?
I'm searching for, a place to go
(You see me)
You see me standing on the highway
(On the side of the highway)
Don't ask me where I'm going
Because I am not going your way
(I'm not going that way)
I'm searching, trying to find my way
(Trying to find my self)
So I'm standing at the end of the cross road
Trying to find my self
And, how could I tell you
Because you don't really know
See, I have to find my self, and I want to be alone
You see me
Standing
Don't ask me where I'm going
Because I am not going that way
Because I am trying to find my place
Where I'm suppose to be? When you wake me
From my daydream
Fill my eyes with burning sand and then tell me, of the story how to get to Sugarland??
