

Tired

Nelly

Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
Tired, little mama I hope that you can't stand it, that I gotta leave
That I gotta go bye, bye, bye, see that door I'm lookin' at?
See I don't need to be lookin' down, I believe I'm the one
I believe till my day is done, for me it's someone, yeah
Tired, hey we go through it everyday
Said I'm so tired and I know it's going to be another shitty day
See I don't need to be livin' down, like it pays to be happy
Same song, comin' with a dance song
Never different way, always the same
Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
I'm tired cause' I got my back ass up in a truck
You don't got to worry about me
Comin' round' here, callin' your ass to see what's up
I don't need you anymore, I'm so tired of your games
See I'm happy to be leavin' but I'm glad to see I came
I'm takin' these keys to the door
And I'm comin' back to get every damn thing I own, I own
You gotta move it in slow mo', think I'm comin' baby girl, no no no no
I'm so tired of your games, see I thought you wanted to be happy
You need a son you don't need a man, you just, you just
Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
I can't take no more, can't take no more
Can't take no more of this breakdown
It's all safe for me, better step down, everything will be alright
Went for my day dream, then we turned into strangers

No reason to stay here, nothing left remains here
Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
Stop your cryin', oh, you know that I'm tired of your lyin', hey
Do you know you do this all the time, yeah
You always say you're sorry so
I cut you slack, I take you back, that's all I'm ever doin' with you
I'm tired, said I'm done with you, said I'm done with
Hey, oh, oh, oh, yeah
And I'm taking my shit and leaving here
