

Blow

Emily Clibourn

Every day we stay the same is another day we need a change
I see a picture in my brain, one of these days weâ€™ve got to change

I see a picture in my brain, the spark before the flame
Light of thunder before the rain, the wind to blow the wave of change

Changes, a change is gonna come
Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
Itâ€™s gonna blow, blow, blow

Angels sing of higher ways from San Fransisco to LA
I trash my cash and raise my soul, the long walk home should be made alone

Changes, a change is gonna come
Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
When you hear these voice whisper in your ear from above, for the love
Keep calm and carry on
Changes, a change is gonna come
Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
Itâ€™s gonna blow, blow, blow

Follow me through the night, the light of love is alive
Dance til dawn, itâ€™s alright, the light of love is alive
Follow me through the night, the light of love is alive
Dance til dawn, itâ€™s alright, the light of love is alive

Itâ€™s gonna blow, blow, blow
Follow me through the night

Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
When you hear these voices whisper in you ear and you know itâ€™s gonna blow
Keep calm and carry on
Changes, a change is gonna come
Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
When you hear the call a change is gonna come, from above, for the love
Keep calm and carry on

Follow me through the night, the light of love is alive
Dance til dawn, itâ€™s alright, the light of love is alive
Changes, a change is gonna come

Itâ€™s gonna blow your mind
Itâ€™s gonna blow, blow, blow
