The Reason Why

John Farnham

What did I do
Before the day I set my eyes on you?
Spending my time
Just working at the things I had to doAnd then I saw your face
I was captured heart and soul
You gave me so much moreYou're the reason why
I listen in the night
And steal the softest kisses
While you sleepYou're the reason why
Tears will fill my eyes
Just looking at a photograph
Of youTouching my frown
Tell me what you read between the lines
Every thing's alright
I know sometimes I act a little strangeYou bring me so much joy
Conversations make me smile
How could I love you more?You're the reason why
I speak with foolish pride
Whenever there's a chance
To show you 'roundAnd you're the reason why
I lost this heart of mine
At the very moment
You arrivedAnd I can't believe this life
Was ever lonely
No, I can't imagine life
Before youYou're the reason why
I'm holding on so tight
I never want to let
This feeling goAnd you're the reason why
My love will never die
My heart just could not sing
If not for youWhat did I do
Before the day I set my eyes on you?
