Everything But You

Duke Ellington

You left me a horse from Texas,
A house with installments due,
A letter with lots of x-s
Everything but you.You left me some beans from Boston,
A bicycle built for two,
A memory to get lost in,
Everything but you.Each day was so gay and so daring,
I loved every breathtaking minute,
For how could I know I was sharing
A kiss without a future in it.You left me a dream to room with,
A coffee pot from Peru,
A knife and fork to spoon with,
Everything but you.You left me a horse from Texas,
A house with installments due,
A letter with lots of x-s
Everything but you.You left me some beans from Boston,
A bicycle built for two,
A memory to get lost in,
Everything but you.Each day was so gay and so daring,
I loved every breathtaking minute,
For how could I know I was sharing
A kiss without a future in it.You left me a dream to room with,
A coffee pot from Peru,
A knife and fork to spoon with,
Everything but you.Everything but you.
You left me everything, everything but you.
