

Somebody (loves You)

Plies

Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, oohWish I can hug every nigga who done lost trial
And see all da ones who aint been visited in a while
And see all da goons dats down, wish I can help em smile
To show all my niggas I love em Ill walk a 100 milesBless my dawg who got killed in his own house
Help em pull through if dey on life support now
Da only thing I live for is to make my son proud
My heart go out to all dese young niggas dat's runnin wildI said a prayer for all da mamas who done lost dey child
Da 12 year old who wanna fuck, God slow her down
Her life all of jammers help her to turn around
Please reach out and help her God before she frownSomebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, oohI know dat feeling when it feel like nobody care
When you goin through yo problems, seem like nobody there
I started to question myself if God really care
Sometime I cut off all da lights in da room and stareWonder if he brought this far to drop me off here
I know it seem like sometimes life aint fair
They say da only thing you count on in dis world is prayer
I prayed so much dat I thought dat God couldnt hearCause I done been through so much bullshit dis past year
Its hard now to find motherfuckas dats sincere
Da streets make so hard for you to think clear
I'd give up all dis shit to have my brother hereSomebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, oohI got a call form my home girl, her mama died
Somebody home invaded took her mama life
I just held da phone and listen to her cry
She kept repeating herself, all she asked is whyCan only imagine what she goin through on da inside
Cause when my brother went to prison half of me died
Aint nothin more precious in da world homie than life
Gotta take da good wit da bad homie and strideDa right amount of pressure can make you commit suicide
Imagine da pressure on a nigga who cant provide
When everything goin wrong its hard to do right

If you goin through right now all I wanna say is Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
Somebody loves you baby, oh, oh, oh
Somebody loves you baby, ooh
