

Tired of Missing You

Isac Elliot

Walked away, walked away with a piece of mind
With a piece of mind
Like that other time
Run away, run away
Didn't even cry, didn't even cry
Baby not this time
This loss of marry that goes down {?}
I'm tired of sticking around and playing one of your games
This love was crushed into the ground
So now I put out the flameCHORUS:
I just want you to know, know, know
I'm tired of missing you
I gotta let go, go, go
I'm tired of missing you
So baby I'm saying bye bye
Made up my mind
Girl, that was the last time
I want you to know, know, know, know, know, know
Like the sun, like the sun
Yeah, you made it shine, yeah you made it shine
No I can't deny
Like the rain, like the rain
Made it black and white, made it black and white
Feeling grey inside
This loss of marry that goes down
I'm tired of sticking around and playing one of your games
This love was crushed into the ground
So now I put out the flameCHORUS:
I just want you to know, know, know
I'm tired of missing you
I gotta let go, go, go
I'm tired of missing you
So baby I'm saying bye bye
Made up my mind
Girl, that was the last time
I want you to know, know, know, know, know, know
I just want you to know
Walked away, walked away
With a piece of mind, with a piece of mind

Like that other time, time, timeCHORUS:

I just want you to know, know, know

I'm tired of missing you

I gotta let go, go, go

I'm tired of missing you

So baby I'm saying bye bye

Made up my mind

Girl, that was the last time

I gotta let go, go, go

I'm tired of missing you

I just want you to know

I just want you to know
