

21st Century Girl

Jonah Tolchin

i'm a 21st century man gonna make it to the promised land oh, die trying oh, die tryingshe's a 21st century girl working her way to a better world
she's gonna make it she's gonna make itand as this life keep passing by did you ever stop and wonder why am I breathing for a reason?
who will hold you through the seasons?
oh, she's my 21st century girl everybody's got some place to go what happend to the days when we took it slow we were young then we were young thenand as this life keep passing by
did you ever stop and wonder why
am I breathing for a reason?
who will hold you through the seasons?
oh, she's my 21st century girlshe's my 21st century girl she's my 21st century girl she's my 21st century oh, won't you believe in me?
and as this life keep passing by
did you ever stop and wonder why
am I breathing for a reason?
oh, she's my 21st century
my 21st century
my 21st century
