

Infidel

Daylight Dies

Ghost
Passing through
... faceless fleeting
Infidel
Shadows remained
And all else
Was cast out with the tideI dredge the depths
To find a meaning
Obscured by time
I search horizons yearning for answers
To who I amVoices
An echo of the past
Diminishing
Leaving silence in your wakeI dredge the depths
To find a meaning
Obscured by time
I search horizons yearning for answers
To who I amDredging the depths
For meaning
Obscured by time
Searching horizons
For answers
I'll never find
