

Losing Heart

Brandi Carlile

I don't mind if my heart don't beat and the sun don't shine
They'll get theirs, you'll get yours and I'll get mine
It used to be that everything was easy
Now, it's lost and nobody believes meAm I losing heart
Have I frozen it, oh yeah
Am I pushing too hard
Have I started to forgetI'm alright, am I made of steel, am I locked up tight
I'm human but I'm wide awake and afraid to fight
It used to take nothing to amaze me
But now I'm older and it doesn't even phase meAm I losing heart
Have I frozen it, oh yeah
Am I pushing too hard
Have I started to forgetIt used to be that everything was easy
Now, it's lost and nobody believes meAm I losing heart
Have I frozen it, oh yeah
Am I pushing too hard
Have I started to forget
