Simple Man

Brandon Heath

Here I keep on keepin' on believin'
You've never given me a reason to drop my faith
And I won't leave You just for the sake of leavin'
Cause I got every reason to stayIt's a good little time to settle down my world
But You took a hold of me
And then I told You I promise to stand for You
But You gotta tell me what's it gonna be, yeah, yeahI'm just a simple man, a little part of a bigger plan
Anything that gives me worth, God it's You, You, You
So take the rest of me cause You got the best of me
Anything good in me comes from You, oh, oh, yeah, yeahDon't You know that God, me, all of me hides in You
Oh God, my home is Your hands
But then You bend me into the world You send me
Now I gotta tell the truth to everyone that I can, yeah, yeahI'm just a simple man, a little part of a bigger plan
Anything that gives me worth, God it's You, You, You
So take the rest of me cause You got the best of me
Anything good in me comes from You, You, You, YouI'm just a simple man, a little part of a bigger plan
Anything that gives me worth, God it's You, You, You
So take the rest of me 'cause You got the best of me
Anything good in me comes from YouI said anything that gives me worth, God, it's you, oh, oh
Keep on keepin' on believin'
