Blue Smoke

Al Morgan

Blue smoke goes drifting by into the deep blue sky
And when I think of home, I sadly sigh
Oh, I can see you there with loving tears in your eyes
As we finally said our last good byes
And, as I sailed away with a longing to stay
I promised, I'd be true and love only you

Blue smoke goes drifting by into the deep blue sky
My memories of home will never die
Blue smoke goes drifting by into the deep blue sky
My memories of home will never die
