Today We Are All Demons (Beneath the World Mix)

Combichrist

Who loves pain? Life is not worth livin'
It's evilWe're all demons today
Come down and feel the pain
It burns straight through you
And makes a hole in your soulI don't care what you've been told
And now I carry you
And as a soldier of misfortune
An ultimate doom slayerI want you to feel and I know you will
And everything you see
Will bleed straight through
Reveal the truthAnything can happen, you say
I never tried to get it
I never tried to fit in
And now I'm falling throughFire when ready
Ready, fireI'm human too you know
Everything, soul's dead
I'm human too you know
Talented, scavengersI'll hold you down, you'll be my bait
I'll throw you to my slaves
I'll stick to my lies
And everything is shallowI know there is no use to pray
I am a demon today
We're all demons today
We drown in soil, we're floodedAs it happens, I still try to be human
I never tried to fit in
And now I'm falling through againFire when ready
Ready, fireFire when ready
Ready, fire
Fire when ready
Ready, fireWho loves pain? Life is not worth livin'
Ah, don't touch it
It's evil
