Distant Lover

Thelma Houston

Distant lover, lover

(Lover, lover, lover)

So many miles away

Heaven knows that I long for you every night, every night

I plan, sometimes I dance through the dayDistant lover

(Lover, lover, lover)

You should think about me and say a prayer for me

Please, please baby, think about me sometimes

Think about me here, here in misery, miseryAs I reminisce, oh baby, through our joyful summer together

The promises we made, all the daily letters

Then, all of the sudden everything seemed to explode

Now, I gaze out my window, sugar, down a lonesome roadDistant lover

(Lover, lover, lover)

Sugar, how can you treat my heart so mean and cruel

Sugar, sugar, treat every moment that I spent with you

I treasure every like it was a precious jewelPlease, Lord have mercy, please, come back, baby

Something I wanna say when you left

You took all of me with you, do you wanna hear me scream?

Come back and hold me, girl
