Watching the Party

Fairground Attraction

Midnight neons blur in drunken eyes
And flicker their mad, mad light
Fireworks fall like a floral arcade
It's a carnival tonightAnd I'm watching the party
I'm watching the party
I'm listening to the laughing
I'm watching the party, yeahHere's the TV game show host
He's telling some marvelous jokes
Here's the prizes someone could win
Just make the lucky wheel of fortune spinBut I'm watching the party, yeah
I'm watching the party
I'm listening to the laughing
I'm watching the partyPicture a chintzy, chintzy ballroom hall
Diamante necklaces and mirror-ball
The conductor yawns and looks at his watch
And swings his baton in time to a waltzMe, I'm watching the party
I'm watching the party
I'm listening to the laughing
I'm watching the party
