

Better Man

Shayne Ward

Until the oceans all run dry
Until the stars fall from the sky
Even if words don't seem to rhyme
I'll be addicted to your smile And if the wind blows out the sun
I'll still believe you are the one
No matter what we're going through
I'll plan to spend my nights with you I promise you my heart one thing
I swear to you my soul always
It isn't hard to understand
Your making me a better man Baby my love will see me through
I'll always catch you when you fall
And if the hard times get too much
I'll still be craving for your touch I promise you my heart one thing
I swear to you my soul always
It isn't hard to understand
Your making me a better man I dedicate my world
I dedicate my all
For every moment
Your leaving me breathless
I dedicate my touch
For there was not enough
I wanna hold on
I just wanna hold on to you I promise you my heart one thing
I swear to you I swear to you my soul
Ooh it isn't hard to understand
Your making me a better man
It isn't hard to understand
Your making me a better man
