

Death Walks Behind You (Studio Live 1981)

Atomic Rooster

Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you Lock the door, switch the light
You'll be so afraid tonight
Hide away from the beast
Count the nine lives that you have Start to scream, shout for help
There is no one by your side
To forget what is done
Seems so hard to carry on Luck is gone, end is near Bring yourself to understand
It's your fate, or what's cast
Point a finger at yourself Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you Lock the door, switch the light
You'll be so afraid tonight
Hide away from the beast
Count the nine lives that you have Start to scream, shout for help
There is no one by your side
To forget what is done
Seems so hard to carry on
Seems so hard to carry on, carry on Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you
Death walks behind you
