Money Note

Camille

Euro...
Dollar...
le mark et le franc
il me manque le mark et le franc...
Everybody get up now,
Get ready for the wow,
Put your arms up in the sky,
I'll hit the money note, the money note.
And Dolly Parton wrote it,
And Whitney Houston stole it,
If Celine Dion could reach it,
I'll hit the money note, the money note.
I want it to sound like silver,
And I want it to sound like gold,
I never would sing for my supper,
My soul can't be bought and sold.
I'm waiting in the spotlight,
I'm ready for the fight,

I'm looking so hot tonight,
I'll hit the money note, the money note.
And Dolly Parton wrote it,
And Whitney Houston stole it,
If Celine Dion could reach it,
I'll hit the money note, the money note.
Money note, money note, money note, money note.
I wanted to take it higher,
Ooh you would be amazed,
I just want to beat Mariah,
Oh, let me deserve their place.
Everybody get up now, (Yeah)
Get ready for the wow, (For the money note)
I'll hit the money note,
Here it is!
le mark et le franc
il me manque le mark et le franc .....
Il me manque marc et franck
Il me manque
