Shell Of Myself

Mest

The nightmare's not over
The sky is still covered
The blood that we both spilled
The night that we last shared
Lately, I've been
A shell of myself, can't you see?
I cannot hold back
The feelings of fear within me
This nightmare has no end
The walls still black and red
This figure's haunting me
This fear's consuming me
Lately, I've been
A shell of myself, can't you see?
I cannot hold back
The feelings of fear within me
Lately, I've been
A shell of myself, can't you see?
I cannot hold back
The feelings of fear within me, within me
