

Laugh A Little

Margaret Becker

Times don't change
This I know
It's a sad, sad world
Wherever you go
But life has two faces
The frown and the smile
While it hurts so bad sometimes
You gotta laugh once in a while[Chorus:]
You gotta laugh a little
Laugh into the wind
Close your eyes and lose yourself
Go on and laugh out loud my friend
Go on and sway just a little
Underneath the moon
Feel the wind of heaven free your soul
As it blows over youDeep concern
You should express
But hearts get weak
From too much heaviness
There's medicine in laughter
Go on, take a big dose for you
You can trust me, it is one thing
You can never overdo[Chorus:]The joy of heaven
Is your strength
It'll bring you healing
It'll ease you pain[Chorus:]
[Repeat Chorus:]
