Nothing More

Maduk

I been waitin' for the light of -?-
to show me where your heart lies your shadow's castin' another silhouette
i don't like what is hidingJust new days ahead now I'm gonna live what i believe is gonna move us along but we won't stop, we wont stop tryin'
throw your hands up
move cause you can't stop there's nothing more I needThere's new days ahead there's new days ahead there's new days ahead [x2]There's new days ahead now
its gonna move us along
throw your hands up
we gonna move because we can't stop there's nothing more we need
