Let Them Fly

Tajci

Look at them now you think, they grew up way too fast it seems like it was yesterday he was a baby in your arms.

You remember every step of the way as you watch them grow and now that little child of yours is ready to go.

With your prayers let them fly may God keep them safe from harm and all the angels be at their side as they journey to make you proud.

And all the memories keep in your heart 'cause no matter how tall they are he'll always be she'll always be your little child.
