Waterfall

Embrace

Waterfall, why do you rush through me?
Happiness caught now I'd return but I'm ready to see
I'll follow you on when all else fails
Waterfall lead down, I'm on your trail
Waterfall, why do you rush so fast?
Happiness caught now I'd return but I'm ready to ask
I'll follow you on when all else fails
Waterfall lead on, I'm on your trail
And I can't believe it and all my life is changing lanes
All I know is it's always there
I'll follow you on when all else fails
Waterfall I'm on your trail
I'll follow you down when all else fails
'Cos I can't look at life, I know what I feel
And now my life is run and no one else knows what I want
Waterfall, lead down, I'll live to the sound of [Incomprehensible]
