Addicted to When You're Gone

Sing It Loud

I'm waking up
Waking up
To all the games that you've played.

I'm taking up
Taking up
The thought of leaving this place
Of leaving this place.

Yeah leaving all the stupid lies
And all the people I despise.
Because there's very little room for the ones who take me higher.

And I
I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you have me all figured out
Well you're wrong

I'm addicted to when you're gone
(you're gone)

There's not enough
Not enough
Time to find a reason.
Because things I love
Are not enough for someone I believe in Someone I believed in.

See I could find somebody right
With open arms and open eyes
With a bigger heart

And I
I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you have me all figured out
Well you're wrong

I'm addicted to when you're gone

I'm so run down
Feeling strung out
It's like I'm losing respect of me

I feel aimless
Almost faceless
I need to take what I can get me

And I
I'm addicted to when you're gone
So just listen up closely
If you think that you have me all figured out
Well you're wrong

I'm addicted to when you're gone
