

Out Of Time

Melanie C

What if this is nearly over
Everything coming to an end
As I see the fading colors
Finding it harder to pretend
No one can take away the days that we conquered
They hang like shadows in my mind
Everything I thought, everything I felt
Thank God that's over
Reading the signs, were out of time
There is always a new story
Another player in the game
Can I rise to a new glory
Or will these demons keep me chained?
Sometimes fear consumes my every emotion
So I'm drifting with the tide
Everything I am, everything I did with total devotion
Reading the signs, were out of time
The sun is gonna rise, maybe shine a little bit brighter
No matter what they say, we can reach a little bit higher
Shake away the chains, we can do this together
I know with you by my side we'll be alright
The sun is gonna rise, maybe shine a little bit brighter
No matter what they say, we can reach a little bit higher
Shake away the chains, we can do this together
I know with you by my side nothing can stop you and I
Leave all the anger behind, we'll be alright
(Alright, alright)
We'll be alright
(Alright, alright)
Oh
(Alright, alright)
We'll be alright
