

Now I Hear

Goo Goo Dolls

Take time to try and find a light
That shines behind your eyes tonight
I found a deep dark place inside
There's more to both of you
Than anyone's expecting here tonight
Wish I could make that right, well
They covered up your eyes
They never gave you
Nothing more than pain
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You're throwing it all away
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You're throwing it all away
Don't make a sound
We stayed away
From all the static on the line
I guess we never stopped to shine
I'd cry aloud if I remember

All the mess I'd left behind
But then I had to lie and
They covered up your eyes
They never gave you nothing more than pain
Oh, I come around for you, I know
'Cause I'm feeling the same way
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You're throwing it all away
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You're throwing it all away
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You showed us all the way
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You showed us all the way
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You showed us all the way
Now I hear, yeah, I hear
You showed us all the way
