

Don't I Look The Same

Mainstay

Landlocked eyes, jealous minds

That won't stop for me now

One time find, lover's prize

That won't stop for meBut it's You that makes the mountains move
And sets them in their places, in their placesThe day breaks, the night falls
And don't I look the same as everyone?Put their hope in one more kiss

That won't stop for me now

And hide their wounds inside their hearts

And they hardly breatheBut it's You that makes the mountains move
And sets them in their places, in their placesThe day breaks, the night falls
And don't I look the same?

But love come and change me

So I'm hoping, You and nothing elseStone set eyes, fixed on life that won't stopThe day breaks, the night falls
And don't I look the same?

But love come and change me, oh

So I'm hoping, You and nothing elseStone set in You, stone set in You
Stone set in You and nothing else
