Floorkiller (2004 Version)

Icon of Coil

someone pretends to hold it back even they don't know that they gave their best when they gave up other believes when they're on the top even though they got more then much to give bit by snakes
but I won't give it up
come down
confront all my visions
come down...
still I'm hunting the demons I used to love to see the reflections of my shadows now it seems like a threat we need less as we swallow each other still I'm hunting the demons
confront all my visions
come down...
can't wait for the signs to stop flashing in my head can't wait for the sounds to hold me back how it felt through that time I can't explain but I hope you try to see seduce me
hold and caress me
come down
confront all my visions
come down...
