

A Woman In Love (It's Not Me)

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers

She laughed in my face, told me goodbye
Said, "Don't think about it, you can go crazy
Anything can happen, anything can end
Don't try to fight it, don't try to save me" She's a woman in love, she's a woman in love
And he's gonna break her heart to pieces
She don't wanna see
She's a woman in love, but it's not me Well, alright, do what you want
Don't try to talk, don't say nothin'
She used to be the kind of woman you have and you hold
She could understand the problems, she let the little things go She's a woman in love, she's a woman in love
And he's gonna break her heart to pieces
But she don't wanna know
She's a woman in love, she can't let go Time after time, night after night
She would look up at me and say she was lonely
I don't understand the world today
I don't understand what she needed
I gave her everything, she threw it all away on nothin' She's a woman in love, she's a woman in love
And he's gonna break her heart to pieces
She don't wanna see
She's a woman in love, but it's not me
She's a woman in love
