

Can't Say Love

Hunter Hayes

Sheâ€™s got a smile, all her own
Sheâ€™s turning heads tonight
Sheâ€™s superhero strong
And thatâ€™s her downfall sometimes
Sheâ€™d rather leave alone
And itâ€™s like kryptonite
If she tries, so sheâ€™ll never try

She canâ€™t say love
And run the risk of being wrong
It hurts too much
To find the edge and know youâ€™re jumping
Into something, maybe nothing,
Never could be, wish it was
Love, love, love, oh
She canâ€™t say love

First time for everything
And this is mine
Canâ€™t seem to see how I feel
And say it right
Youâ€™ve been locked up so long
But so have I, when I try
No matter how I try

I canâ€™t say love
And run the risk of being wrong
It hurts too much
To find the edge and know youâ€™re jumping
Into something, maybe nothing,
Never could be, wish it was
Love, love, love, oh
But you canâ€™t say love
No, I canâ€™t say love

Itâ€™s falling into something, maybe could be Everything youâ€™re looking for
But you canâ€™t say love
Oh, no, you canâ€™t say love
You canâ€™t say love

And run the risk of being wrong
It hurts too much
To find the edge and know you're jumping
Into something, maybe nothing,
Never could be, wish it was
Love, love, love, yeah
Jumping into something, maybe nothing
Could be, never wish it was
Love, love, love, oh
But you can't say love
No, you can't say love
You can't, you can't, you can't
You can't say love
