

I Won't Need You Anymore

Randy Travis

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You're my always and forever
You're the one that hung the moon
After all these nights together
I still get lost in your perfume And if I could write a love song
Every line would tell the truth
It would be a warm and soft one
And my heart would say to you When you see me walk on water
When the sea don't reach the shore
When the fires of hell freeze over
I won't need you anymore Oh, the feelings lay so easy
Lyin' here the way we are
No one else could ever hold me
Like the heavens hold the stars When you see me walk on water
When the sea don't reach the shore
When the fires of hell freeze over
I won't need you anymore
I won't need you anymore
