

Thoughts

Eloy

I follow the rainbow
I ride with the wind
Crossing horizons
Feel freedom within I embrace every morning
The light as it dawns
Dark shadows are fading
A new day is born I'm a part of the one
In the tempest of time
The heartbeat of life
Is pounding
From afar in the distance
Someone's calling my name
And I'm asking myself
Who I really am
