Unsaid

Starmarket

Here goes the same thing around again
No I'll never learn
You're in the deep end
I don't know how to swim
But I'm jumping inWhere I was lead to
But I was distracted
By the line you drew me to
Whatever lies in youHere goes the same thing around again
No I'll never learn
You're in the deep end
I don't know how to swim
But I'm jumping inThis is the same old blood flow
My hearts beats like this before
But you feel so brand new to me
I've been washed ashoreYou've got my voice in your hands
I've got your voice in my head
One word is all that's left
UnsaidLife used to be dark
Can't believe when I dropped I fell hard
Knocked my toung right out of my mouth
You took the words away
Before I could make out
What I was going to say
Picked me up back up
With the sweep of your breath
You've rendered me
You've rendered me...
SpeachlessHere goes the same thing around again
I'll never learn
You're in the deep end
I don't know how to swim
I'm jumping inLost in a silent movie
Moths move
No words are spoken
We've both go somthing to say
Sound's been brokenYou've got my voice in your hands
I've got your voice in my head
Unsaid

One word is all that's left
Unsaid
