

Until the End

All Shall Perish

Hope
Has never felt this way before
Wasted so much time
And so much more that I let go
Let it die
Let it go
I would ask you why
But it would kill me just to know
To know our ending
Is just the beginning
My bloods draining
That beautiful mouth...drinking it down
The truth is found
With me
Six feet under ground
Hope
Has never felt this way before
Wasted so much time
And so much more that i let go
Let it die
Let is go
I would ask why,
But it would kill me just to know
Is this dead
Or will it live again
This derails my thoughts for bliss
Too bled to triumph
I was left here powerless
Powerless
In your
Vengeance lies my strength
And i
will see this till the end
This derails my thoughts for bliss
Too bled to triumph
Powerless
Burned in my sight every night
Every night

I hope to see this to the end
