

Strange Face of Love

Tito & Tarantula

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Let go of your love
Ride his pulse and you forget
Slow down your time will come
If not tonight surely by the dawn
Take it like a man...

The strange face of loveA cat? s eye a lizard? s tail
The pentagram he bought in hell
He stalks the night with no intent
His brow sweets for innocence
Take it like a man...

The strange face of loveDon? t look back, don? t look back
He? s right on your trail
Don? t look back, don? t look back
He? s just a step away from hell
Don? t look back, don? t look back

Into the strange face of loveThe rain? s soul makes kill and cry
He wants desperately to die
But fast and skillfully forgets
He? s back on the street with no regrets
Take it like a man...

He? s right on your trail
Don? t look back, don? t look back
He? s just a step away from hell
Don? t look back, don? t look back
Into the strange face of love
