There Goes My First Love

The Drifters

There goes my girl
There goes my first love
With the guy I used to call my friend
There goes love I thought would never end
And I can't forget her
My heart is breaking
When I see her holding hands with him
Can't help thinking how it might have been She's still my first loveMy first love is still around. She never left this part of town
Now I see her most ev'ry day but she don't look my way
There goes my first love with the guy I used to call my friendShe loved me but not for long. I wish I knew where I went wrong
Now ev'ry day those pretty feet come walking on down the streetThere goes my first love with the guy I used to call my friend...
