

Maybe Tomorrow

Samantha James

I dove into your arms, and never turned around,
Temptation moved me forwards, believing in the love that we found,
Dreams of what I was chasing, tried to pull me down,
Searching for your embrace, like they just never never found

I dreamt to see the sun through the pouring rain,
Longing to understand the truth that still remains

Maybe tomorrow, truth will arise,
Giving us hope that love will survive,
Reaching for freedom in later days to come,
Maybe tomorrow, peace will be won

It takes time to recreate a life that you've been living so long,
Keep holding on to faith, knowing this is where you belong,
Dreams of what i was chasing, turn my life around,
Searching for your embrace, took me to where i am now

Maybe tomorrow, truth will arise,
Giving us hope that love will survive,
Reaching for freedom in later days to come,
Maybe tomorrow, peace will be won

Yeeeah, yeeeeah, yeah yeah yeah yeah
yeah, yeah
yeeeeah, yeeeeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
yeah, yeah

Maybe tomorrow, truth will arise,
Giving us hope that love will survive,
Reaching for freedom in later days to come,
Maybe tomorrow, peace will be won
