Beautiful Hum

Small Mercies

There a sound leading me along
The piper plays his tune
And I can't resist the songThere a sound, it whispers in my ear
The melody so soft
Yet the message loud and clearAnd I know I'm the only one who hearsI don't want to love you
I don't need to be the one
I just long to listen to your beautiful hum
I don't crave your wisdom
I don't desire your love
I just long to listen to your beautiful humThere's a place, it's got rhythm it's got blues
Oh, I can't hear the song it sings
Oh, I'm the voice you are the newsThere's a place, a city so alive
And your beating heart that keeps it all in timeI don't want to love you
I don't need to be the one
I just long to listen to your beautiful hum
I don't crave your wisdom
I don't desire your love
Just your beautiful humIt takes me, holds me tight
No I won't let it go
Brace me, it feels so right
'Cause I know I'm not alone'Cause I don't want to love you
I don't need to be the one
I just long to listen
To your beautiful hum
I don't crave your wisdom
I don't desire your love
I just long to listen
To your beautiful hum
your beautiful hum your beautiful humyour beautiful hum
