Heart Of The Rainbow

Freedom Call

Somewhere in the desert land
The valley of the graves
All you have to find there is
The gate within the caveGardens of your darkest fears
A place of no return
Bound to face your destiny
Fires of hope still burnArise, God, can't You hear my cry?
I'm alive, calling Your mighty name
Save me from sadnessFly to the heart of the rainbow
I'm searching the eyes of the world
Deep in the land of the shadows
Awaiting the end of the gameWhispers in the moonlight
I can hear their shadows crawl
Rising up from down below
The ghosts of PhantakorCreatures of the underworld
They try to catch my soul
And try to seal my fate foreverFly to the heart of the rainbow
I'm searching the eyes of the world
Deep in the land of the shadows
Awaiting the end of the gameLord of the darkness is trying to poison my mind
Believe in your heart and you will see, it's not the place to die
Don't hesitate, no time to wait, the days are passing byArise, God, can't You hear my cry?
I'm alive, calling Your mighty name
Reaching for gloryFly to the heart of the rainbow
I'm searching the eyes of the world
Deep in the land of the shadows
Awaiting the end of the game
