Fair Weather

Julia Nunes

We are friends when you want to be other times we are enemies and the weeks that go by that you're not on my mind I feel freeBut I miss the nights we spent in your car outside my house, never went too far until someone got mad and then chased him around in the darkI'm not asking for a fight cause there's nothing to talk about it's been a year since we hashed it out and nothing changed
I'm not saying I'm right I'm just saying it's hard to think about all the times that we laughed aloud and now we're strangeand we are friends when you want to be which is not when we disagree but I don't know that's the case 'til I hear it around from somebody and they say Julia, just settle down there's room for the new girl in town but everyone just walks away I'm used to it no need to say goodbye goodbyeI'm not asking for a fight cause there's nothing to talk about
it's been a year since we hashed it out
and nothing changed
and now we're strangeWell I can go for a week or two without thinking at all about you but the second I do I am lost as the memories pass throughI'm not asking for a fight cause there's nothing to talk about
it's been a year since we hashed it out
and nothing changed
and now we're strangeAnd they say Julia just settle down

I'm used to it no need to say goodbye goodbye
